TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

(By Russell Kay)

I thought I was dizzy last week end after two weeks at the Florida State Fair, but as I approach another column deadline this week I find myself even zanier due to the fact that I've been up to my ears with the Press Breakfast, annual gridiron show staged by newspaper folks in connection with the Florida Citrus Exposition at Winter Haven.

Being an "off the record" show, I can't describe the event in detail but I can assure you that the bars were down and the sky was the limit when it came to harpooning politicos with Governor Fuller Warren taking the brunt of the good natured kidding.

The Exposition itself showed much improvement and as mild weather prevailed throughout the week attendance was excellent. Winter Haven bulged at the seams with visitors throughout, the entire week and hotel accommodations were at a premium.

But this condition seems to apply throughout the tourist area. The West Coast has enjoyed an excellent tourist season and at attractions like Cypress Gardens, Silver Springs, Weekiwahe Springs, Sunshine Park Race Track and others all report a record breaking season.

Florida certainly has much to be thankful for this season despite our citrus troubles. Weather has been perfect from a tourist standpoint and while visitors may not be spending as lavishly as they did, they are here and the millions they contribute to the state's economy helps tremendously.

Miami and the surrounding area reports hotels filled and the tourists influx at its peak despite predictions that this would be an off season. If we are smart enough to hold prices within reason and keep hi-jacking to a minimum, we can keep these visitors with us and insure their return another year.

And while we are on the subject of visitors. Now is the time to start a campaign for summer business. Florida has much to offer the summer visitor and each year we find more and more folks selecting this for their summer vacation.

If our hotel, restaurant, travel and attraction people would all get their heads together now and work out a summer vacation offer or package, I am confident that thousands of summer visitors could be brought here.

Special excursion rates could be offered by rail, air, bus and boat that would include all costs that would have a tremendous appeal.

It shouldn't be difficult to work out a number of attractive offers to fit most any pocketbook so that the prospective visitors are demanding all-expense or "package" tours and vacations, and if these are offered we can count on getting our share of this business.

Florida can hold her own with any of these areas but she will have to go after the business with advertising and publicity and work closely with travel and transportation companies and it isn't a bit too early to start plugging for such business.

At a recent meeting of the directors of the Florida Press Association the thought was advanced that mail-away editions of Florida publications would be just as effective in stimulating interest in Florida as a summer resort as it is in developing winter business, and that such editions could be profitably gotten out in the spring with a summer appeal just as they did in the fall for winter business.

Many Florida attractions have already worked out special summer programs and have found it effective and profitable. A state program could be developed with events and attractions provided throughout the summer months. Daytona Beach has done an excellent job in this respect and in consequence has enjoyed a profitable summer season for years.

The slogan "Florida, The Air Conditioned State" advanced by the Florida State Chamber of Commerce a few years ago is a good one and should be broadcast starting as of now. Let's go after this summer business and get it.

County Exposition Schedules Big Events

Headlining the entertainment for the Fourth Annual Palm Beach County Exposition which opens with a Grand Preview on March 3, is the popular night club maestro Lou Vegie and his Rainbow Club Ensemble. His popularity was attested to in the fact that he was the only featured performer at the inauguration of Gov. Fuller Warren at the recent ceremonies. The cast will appear each of the nine nights of the Exposition at 8 o'clock in the specially decorated entertainment lounge that connects the two buildings.

Located in this foyer will be a special broadcasting booth erected by Radio Station WIRK to demonstrate the inner workings of radio broadcasting to patrons. Feature broadcasts will be made daily from the Exposition Building.

Adjacent will be an actual booth of amateur radio caliber manned by the West Palm Beach Radio Club. Members in attendance will send a twenty-word Palm Beach County Exposition Radiogram free to all parts of the country in cooperation with hundreds of "ham" stations. The receiving station will deliver your message as it emanates from the Exposition Buildings. Members of the West Palm Beach Radio Club are already filling the air alerting their contacts to be ready for your message.

The entertainment lounge will be in constant operation throughout the afternoon and evening by the exhibitors who will display various color films of interest and education.

Plans have been completed by boys and girls of the Vocational Schools in their exhibit in an adjoining building. Their display will cause many of the regular exhibitors to look to their laurels, according to G. J. Hardy, Director of Vocational Schooling. The Vocational Schools will participate during the entire run of the Exposition from March 3-12, except Sunday.

Laymans Day At Canal Point Methodist

The Annual Nominating Committee Meeting will be held at the A. R. Harrington home Friday evening at 8 o'clock. All are invited to join up with the Sunday School contest now in progress.

Others participating are Mrs. Pratt Pope, B. A. Belcher and William Johnson. On this roll call Sunday it is urgently hoped that every home will be represented.

Our people have voted to join in the Waller-Haines meetings at Pahokee Methodist Church. Cars will leave the church promptly at 7:00 p. m.

The February meeting of the W.S.C.S. will be held at the Bucanan home at 2:00 on Tuesday.

Gertrude Shirley Circle In Meeting

The second class of the First Methodist WSCS mission study course, "On Our Own Doorstep," was presented by the Gertrude Shirley Circle in the church auditorium Monday night at a joint meeting of the three circles with Mrs. Parnell Enecks in charge.

Frazer, Jr., Mrs. R. B. Simonson and Mrs. Enecks. Miss Beard, a missionary worker at the local migratory labor camp, sang a vocal solo during the study and another solo during the social hour at the conclusion of the meeting.

It was announced that the third class of the study course will be held in the near future with the Simonson-Lair Circle in charge of the study which is to be dramatized in playlet form.

The group voted to conduct a WSCS luncheon meeting at the church on Mar. 7, honoring Mrs. O. E. Pearson of Fort Lauderdale, WSCS district president, on her official visit here. Mrs. H. L. Dobbs, district treasurer, has also been invited to attend this meeting.

Austin Staples of Coral Gables is visiting his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Anderson, in Pahokee this weekend enroute on a business trip to Hartford, Conn.

How's Your Listening Time?

Buck Howell and I were in Breville last week. Dropped in at Bob's diner where some friends were sitting around talking about whether to sell hogs now or wait.

Buck plunges right into the discussion. He's lecturing away when suddenly they all stand up and start stomping their feet like it was an Indian war dance.

I'm flabbergasted. But Buck only looked sheepish and explains, "Guess I was talking again, when I should've been listening. When a person's talking time gets out of line with his listening time around here, the gang reminds him by standing up and stomping."

From where I sit, that's a good system. Everyone has a right to his opinions—but others have a right to theirs, too—whether it's deciding between to sell or not to sell, apple pie or cherry pie, or a glass of mellow beer or cider. Life's more interesting that way, and hang it if you don't sometimes learn something!

Conservation Plan Is Fully Explained

Under the Agricultural Conservation Program, there are a number of practices for pasture improvement on the farm. In Palm Beach County, there are the following:

1. Clearing and preparing land for seeding, sprigging or sodding; permanent pasture where the cost is at least $10.00 per acre.
2. Establishing pasture by seeding, sprigging, or sodding.
3. Mowing or chopping weeds in pasture.
4. Application of phosphates.
5. Application of lime and Potash.
6. Application of minor elements as soil amendments, such as manganese copper and zinc.
7. Seeding of clover.

The purpose of the Agricultural Conservation Program is to keep up the productivity of the land. Too often the pasture is looked upon as just a part of the farm where crops cannot be grown. Yet in many instances pastures could be improved until they became some of the most productive acres on the farm.

Good pasture management includes proper stocking of the area. Where the pasture is overstocked something must be done to restore lost fertility or to keep palatable grasses and clovers coming along with good vigorous growth.

Details about the program may be obtained at the Palm Beach

County Agricultural Conservation Program office located in the Court House, or the office of the Assistant County Agent in Belle Glade, or from County Agent M. U. Mounts.

Realtors Sponsor Home Show In April

The Palm Beach County Home Show, featuring exhibits by a number of national firms as well as local displays, will be staged during the week of April 10 to 17 at Palm Beach International airport, it was announced by Louis B. Bills, chairman of the show committee.

A number of national exhibitors from the Miami and Fort Lauderdale shows have engaged space in the Field auditorium for the Palm Beach County exhibits.

Mrs. Jimmy Sharp and Mrs. Teresa Hawkins spent three days visiting in Miami this week.

Plant City Plans For Strawberry Show

PLANT CITY—A big parade is shaping up for the opening day of the 1949 Strawberry Festival on Tuesday, March 1, according to General Manager G. H. Bates. Nineteen floats and 11 bands have already announced they will be on hand, he said, and more are expected.

Many of the beautiful Gasperilla floats will be here, including the lavish Tampa Electric float, on which five Plant City girls will ride, and the Seaboard Air Line's entry, on which eleven other local girls will ride.

East Hillsborough will be represented by four bands—the senior and junior bands from Plant City High School, and those from Brandon and Turkey Hill high schools. Others will come from Zephyrhills, Dade City, Lakeland, Wauchula and other points.

On the expectation that Governor Warren will be here to crown Miss Peggy Hodges as 1949 queen on the night of March 3, Manager Bates has arranged a joint luncheon of civic clubs and festival officials Friday noon at Hotel Plant.

The Renfro Valley radio unit will be a feature of the festival, while Royal Crown Shows, Florida owned and operated, will be on the midway.

MAX WILSON TO LEAD GLADES SUB-DISTRICT SESSION

Some sixty or more youth representing the Glades Methodist Churches will join in the devotional meeting at the Methodist Church on Tuesday evening.

The regular business session will be conducted by Harry Doggett following the address.

At 8:45 the group will retire to the Sunday School building for a lively recreational session under the direction of James Sims. Refreshments will be served by the Youth Division committee of the Women's Society of Christian Service.

Personal Items

Dr. and Mrs. Charles E. Creel have as guests this week Dr. J. C. Owens and sons, Frank and Howard, of Baltimore, Md.

Mrs. Ellis Sellers has gone to Lakeland for a visit with her brother-in-law and sister, Rev. and Mrs. John Couillette.

Mrs. Terry Sellers and daughters visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Lopez, in West Palm Beach over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Friend and daughter, Jo Ann, and Mrs. Bruce Behymer of Wichita, Kans., Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Daftford of Kansas City, Mo., and Mrs. Ethel Shrader of Denver, Colo., left Tuesday for their homes after a two weeks' visit with Mr. Friend's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hundley, in Pahokee and his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Friend, in Canal Point.

Fish Sausage May Be New Food On Market

TALLAHASSEE—Fish sausage may take its place with such Florida dishes as hush puppies and swamp cabbage if the State Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission has its way. The sausage would use a lot of fish which worry the Commission, those which compete with edible fish for food without having any commercial value.

The process for making the sausage is simple. The fish after they are scaled, cleaned and carefully washed, are cooked under heavy pressure to soften the bones. Then they are ground, bones and all, stuffed into sausage casings of various sizes and smoked. The flavor, it is claimed, is not very different from ham or smoked sausages.

Legislators Favor Flood Control Plan

MIAMI—A majority of Florida legislators will support the expected request by Governor Fuller Warren that they appropriate about $3,000,000 annually for flood control, according to a recent survey.

More than 80 per cent of the legislators indicated they will vote to appropriate state matching funds for the $208,000,000 South Florida control plan prepared by the U. S. Engineers. Flood control has been described by Governor Warren as Florida's No. 1 problem.

Two-thirds stated they will vote to appropriate up to $3,000,000 a year in state funds. Some qualified their answer, saying they will vote up to that sum, if absolutely necessary, but doubt it will take that much. Every legislator indicated favorable action on the state's contribution to the flood control program for 18 South Florida counties.

Several indicated that North Florida has flood control problems, such as the Suwannee River basin, which was badly flooded early in 1947, and that the program should be made state-wide.

A majority of the legislators from West Florida, the area most distant from the 18 counties, favored state support for the project.

LOCAL CHURCHES ARE AWARDED SCOUT CHARTER

A. Q. Howell, Chairman of the Methodist-Baptist Church sponsored Scout Committee, was happy indeed to receive the current charter from the hands of Tom Kirk, North Glades Commissioner, in a fine meeting at the Legion Building on the evening of February 11th.

A good number of parents enjoyed the demonstrations. Refreshments were served.

Commissioner Kirk declared that Scouting was largely based on the Magna Charta—that no Boy Scout has been known to have committed a serious crime. He urged Central Point citizens to backup the Scout program here—not to fail the boys when most needed.

GUILD HAS MEET

Members of St. Martha's Guild, Episcopal Church of the Holy Nativity, at a meeting at the home of Mrs. A. J. Lively Monday evening voted to sponsor a Sunday school for small children at the church, the school to open every Sunday morning at 10:30.

Mrs. C. T. Jackson, president, named Mrs. Norman Kennedy to represent the Guild on the local Council of Church Women. Talks on the "Lenten Season" were given by Rev. and Mrs. Lively. Mrs. Joseph Kahn was a visitor.

STATE-WIDE NEWS NOTES

TALLAHASSEE — The state budget board this week wound up its recommendation to the legislature with a call for about $25,000,000 more per year for general fund purposes than the state expects to get in revenue during the next two years. There was no recommendation from the board as to where these added funds might be found. Originally, the various state departments operating under the general fund asked for $100,000,000 more for the next biennium than they have been spending. The budget board cut this in half but only by reducing the three major state schools by one third, reducing the common schools back to what they got in 1947-49, and trimming requests for $72,000,000 worth of new construction down to $10,000,000. There was no provision in the recommendations for flood control other than to advocate $3,500,000 to come from some special source of revenue. The University of Florida immediately began a state-wide protest through its alumni and the common school teachers prepared to go to work again to recapture the gains which they feel they have earned in the last two years.

They have asked for $96,000,000 for the two years to pay salaries and make planned improvements. They are recommended for $84,000,000 by the budget board.

TALLAHASSEE—Employees of the Florida Industrial Commission are making "thank you sir" an other similar courteous expressions a regular part of their contact with the public. Chairman Raymond E. Barnes has put Governor Warren's courtesy policy into full effect and believes that courtesy is the forerunner of more efficiency.

TALLAHASSEE—County Commissioners are not allowed to measure the distance between a church and a proposed bar from building to building as a pedestrian normally would walk. That is the opinion of Attorney General Richard W. Ervin advised George E. Wickline of the Flagler county commission that his board cannot dispose of property worth more than $300 without notice to the public. In another opinion to James W. Moore, county attorney for Highlands county, Attorney General Ervin also said fee officers cannot store excess fees in any other year against possible future shortages. They must all be turned in to the general fund and used for the benefit of the public.

TALLAHASSEE — Under the leadership of the state department of education, Florida is celebrating national Future Farmers of America Week from February 19 to 26. President of the National FFA is a Florida boy, Doyle Conner, of Starkie. There are 6,100 FFA boys organized in 126 chapters representing 55 Florida counties. These boys learn the latest farming practice and technique, work their own farms and, under the vocational agricultural plan of the state, successfully combine classroom instruction and farming with on-the-farm experience.

TALLAHASSEE — The way to measure the distance between a church and a proposed bar from building to building as a pedestrian normally would walk. That is the opinion of Attorney General Richard W. Ervin as delivered to Beverage Director Lewis H. Schott. Places selling beer or liquor must be removed a certain distance from churches and the Attorney General believes that such distances should be measured from the nearest point of each building and measured along the shortest route of pedestrian travel along the public thoroughfare.

CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST

"CHRIST JESUS" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist, throughout the world on Sunday, February 27.

The Golden Text is: "There shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots" (Isaiah 11:1).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "The Lord thy God will raise up unto thee a Prophet from the midst of thee, of thy brethren, like unto me; unto him ye shall harken" (Deuteronomy 18:15).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Jesus was the offspring of Mary's self-conscious communion with God. Hence he could give a more spiritual idea of life than other men, and could demonstrate the Science of Love—his Father or divine Principle. Born of a woman, Jesus' advent in the flesh partook partly of Mary's earthly condition, although he was endowed with the Christ, the divine Spirit, without measure" (29:32-8).

Cinematic Chatter By Malcolm Millar

Starring Randolph Scott and Marguerite Chapman, "Coroner Creek," Cinecolor version to Luke Short's brass-knuckled Saturday Evening Post story, is coming to the Prince Theatre screen this Sunday morning. Principal support players are George Macready, Sally Eilers and Edgar Buchanan.

"Coroner Creek" is reported to be the blistering story of a cowboy's savage revenge against the betrayal of his beloved. Gun-crazy with hate, he relentlessly hunts his foe through the lawless West, finally cornering him in the Arizona town of Coroner Creek.

Bringing home the savage part of this story in concrete form I will say it is revenge that is frightening in its naked fury. It is brutal! It is vicious! It is rugged! I could go on and on . . . but will stop with Go and Sweat Your Way Through It!

See you at the movies—Mal.

May you never be roasted like this!

"NEFF? SURE I REMEMBER HIM. Class of '19, wasn't he?"

"That's right. You knew he had to give up his job. Doctor's orders."

"Tough break. Hope he had some money saved up."

"Not Neff. Not a penny. You know how he always was—easy come, easy go. Had to sell his house to get out of debt."

"Rough on that sweet little wife of his. Now that I think of it, she kept trying to talk him out of his free-spending ways. Guess she never could."

"He'd never listen. And now those two boys of theirs are of college age."

"Guess now they'll have to go to work, supporting him. Why do people get themselves in a spot like that? Anybody with the common sense of a jack-rabbit knows that the only way to protect their families and themselves is with a systematic plan of saving."

• • •

We don't know Neff. We merely overheard two fellows talking at lunch the other day. Actually we feel sorry for him—for anyone who doesn't know the importance of saving.

Fortunately, for every Neff there are thousands of others who do have a plan for the future. These are the men who invest a part of their earnings each month in U.S. Savings Bonds.

They can see the wisdom in the Payroll Savings Plan—a painless, automatic plan that pays back $4 for every $3 put in, after ten years.

They know that U.S. Savings Bonds are guaranteed by the Government—the safest, surest investment a family man can make today!

If you're not on a payroll, ask at your bank about the equally convenient Bond-A-Month Plan. Remember—you owe it to your own future and to the security of your family!
